LONDON, April 25.—The draft of new Transvaal Constitution was issued to-day. It provides for a legislative assembly consisting of the lieutenant governor, six to nine official members and thirty to thirty-five elected members. Every burgater of the late South African republic in entitled to vote for members of the first Volksraad, as well as all white maies of British birth occupying premises at annual rental of not less than $50 or having capital to the value of $500, unless annual rental of not less than $50 or having capital to the value of $500, unless convicted of treason or murder. The debates in the assembly will be carried on in English, but the president of the Volksraad may permit a member to use the Dutch language, Financial measures must be recommended to the assembly by the governor and no part of the revenue may be appropriated without his authority.

In a communication to Lieutenant Governor Lawley, accompanying the letters In a communication to Lieutenant Governor Lawley, accompanying the letters patent, providing for the changes, Colonial Secretary Littleton says the time is not yet ripe to grant full self government. The latter involves party government and this in the Transvaal will become more practical when the two races have acted longer together under equal rights of citizens and the bitter memories have become softened by time.

BREACH OF TREATY, DECLARES CRONJE PUBLIC PROPERTY A FAMOUS PROPERTY

A FAMOUS REMEDY WHICH HAS BEEN FAVORABLY KNOWN FOR NEARLY FORTY YEARS. IN THE CURE OF THE DISEASES

Is not a "patent medicine" but a PROVED prescription of a graduate Physician who early made the diseases of women his specialty.

Dr. Pierce's

Favorite Prescription

Will hereafter have the ingredients in plain English on every bottle that leaves the laboratory. Made entirely of medicinal flowering plants, this prescription of Dr. Pierce does not contain a par-ticle of alcohol or injurious drugs.

THE PROOF:

From long experience Dr. Pierce acquired the knowledge of how to combine the following ingredients in just the right proportion in his "Favorite Prescription" for disease of women.

This medicine contains the following non-alcoholic vegetable extracts:

Lady Silppor (Oypripedium Pubescens). Slack Ochosh (Olmolfuga Racemosa). Unicorn Root (Ohamselirium Luteum). Biue Ochosh (Caulophyllum Thallotroides). Goldon Seal (Hydrastis Canadensis).

THE REASON:

To meet the many outrageous and wholly baseless attacks of some scoffers, Dr. Pierce has decided to make public the ungredients of this medicine, which is the best tonic for debilitated and nervous women.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON. D. C., April 25.—Justice Wright, in Criminal Court, No. 1, to-day granted the motion of Andrew A. Lipscomb, that the court sever his trial from that of his co-defendant, Thomas M. Fleids. Lipscomb and Fleids are jointly indicted for the embezzlement, under section 841 of the Code of the District of Columbia, of nearly $16,000 of the funds of the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, placed in their hands as receivers of the association. Mr. Lipscomb contended that his defense and that of Mr. Fleids are so antagonistic and conflicting that it would be prejudicial to him if they should be tried together. The prosecution opposed the granting of the motion. Major Holmes Conrad is associated with Attorney R. Walton Moore, of Virginia, and Attorney F. Edward Mitchell, of this city, in the defense of Mr. Lipscomb. Former Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, was, for business reasons, obliged to proceed to Oregon, and therefore cannot participate in the Irial of the cause. at Bijou.

Manager Rex, of the Academy, has decided to put in an extra matinee for the "Ben Hur" week. The heavy sale of seats for the regular performances and the enthusiasm with which the production has been received here made this necessary. The matines will be on Friday. It is especially requested of patrons of the house that they arrange so that they can be seated before eight o'clock for the night performances and before two for the matiness. There are six acts and seventeen scenes, and the producers endeavor to put them on without waits so that too long a time will not be required to give the performance. Indications are that this week at the Academy will be the biggest in its history.

MILWAUKEE, April 25.—Confidence has been restored in the banking institutions of Milwaukee and the run on the First National Bank and the Milwaukee Trust Company, which was caused by the confession of a defalcation by Frank G. Bigclow, until Monday president of the Nieth National Bank and a director of First National Bank, and a director of the Trust Company, of over $1,000,000 is a thing of the past, and banking affairs in Milwaukes have resumed their normal

The banks affected were well able to cope with a long run, but it was decided by all the banks in the city to take advantage of the law on time deposits requiring a notice of thirty days of withdrawal on amounts less than $100, and ninety days where the amounts ecceded that sum. As rapidly as the depositors appeared at the wickets of the savings departments of the affected institutions, their pass books were stamped, acknowledging the notice of withdrawal and the depositors took their departure. It only required about two hours to dispose of the line-up of depositors.

One of the most spectacular happenings of the day was the action of Mayor Rose in walking down Wisconsin Street in full view of the crowd with $50,000 in currency and gold in canvas bags. He was surrounded by policemen and detectives and walked into the bank with the treasure. This money was part of the shipment from Chicago banks and some from other Milwaukee banks. Denounces Action of Election

THAT PROMISE TO ROOSEVELT

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Mr Bascom Slemp, chairman of the Virginia Republican Committee, who is here on business, is pronounced in his criticism of the boards of registration in Virginia who refuse to allow the general public to inspect and copy the pool-books. He states that the election officers in Southampton county, have refused to allow Republicans to see the books, and he expects election officers generally to make the same refusal, though, application has not been made to all of them. The ac-expects election officers generally to make the same refusal, though application has not been made to all of them. The action, he says, will be denounced by Republicans from every stump in the State this fall.

It is understood that some of the oldtimers among the Republicans in Virginia have convinced Mr. Slemp, father and son, that they went too far in promising the President that they would elect a Republican Governor of Virginia this fall.
Hon. George E. Bowden, who is a representative of the old regime in the party in Virginia and is still the national committeeman from that State, is understood to have told Representative Slemp in this city a few days ago that he had made mash promises and that there was no hope of the State's leaving the Democratic column. It is not known how well Mr.
Slemp received this from his old lieutenant. Perhaps it will only result in Mr.
Bowden's being forced at the earliest opportunity to give up his very slender hold on the organization, Such talk does not do him any good at this juncture, when the President is urging the strenuous ille upon all Southern Republicans who have heretofore been content to hold the offices and help select delegates to national convention, while the people voted as they chose.

It was announced to-day that United States Marshal Wilson, of Mississippi, who has been the Republican referee in tast
State in all matters relating to the appointment of Federal office-holders, had given up the latter place. It is understood that he was told from Washington that he would have to do so in order to hold his position as marshal. Wilson and Hon. John Sharp Williams had an encounter on the street in Yazoo City on last election day. There is no doubt of the "offensive partisanship" of Wilson

Broken Glass Gives Detective Clue to Owner of Automobile.

TENDERLOIN WEDDING PARTY

Police Swooped Down on Boisterous Demonstration in Dead of Night.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, April 25.-It is evident that the New York detective force numbers among its members a man or two, who might, if Sherlock Holmes were a living reality, make him jealous. The way they take hold of the filmsiest of clues and piece them together until they rab the guilty party is wonderful to behold!

rab the guilty party is woncerful to behold!

As an instance in point, a man was run over and killed on the road leading to the Acqueduct race track hast week, and the automobile that was the cause of accident got away, apparently without anyone knowing whose machine it was. Then appeared the Sherlock Holmes of the force. A careful examination of the road at the point of the accident uncovered several pieces of broken glass.

Here was a great clue! The detectives pieced the pieces of glass together and behold it was the number plate of an auto! It was but a step to the arrest of the owner of the auto No. Will, and his arraignment on the charge of killing the man. Of course, he denied it—mphatically, energetically and definitely, but what could one expect? The evidence was sattifactory to the sleuths and why should it not be satisfactory to the public?

As was to be expected, the auction sate

As was to be expected, the auction sale of the effects of the great and only Cassio brought forth a great crowa and while the prices realized for the treusures were not record breakers, the public at least showed that it had a keen appreciation of the value of the articles as curiositios and the bidding was at all times lively. The crowd that attended the sale was as non-descript as was ever seen in the rooms of the Knickerbocker Art Galleries. It was only too evident that amongst it was a large sprinkling of the purely curious—those who come to look on anything with which a notable person has been associated, and not with any idea of purchasing.

Instead of this there seems to be a breakdown of some sort every day in the week, and if by any extraordinary plece of good luck two or three days 30 by without an accident, it is a reasonable wager that no week passes during the summer that does not number at least breakdown of some sort every day in the week, and if by any extraordinary piece of good luck two or three days 30 by without an accident, it is a reasonable wager that no week passes during the summer that does not number at least one annoying tig-up.

A peculiar code of honor obtains among districts of the East Side. Being without the gales of ruffians that infest certain districts of the East Side. Being without the pale of the law, it is not surprising that they never think of looing to the courts to furnish them with any sublime faith in other members of the same gang to carry into effect any revenge of their wrongs.

The district attorney and the police have had many striking proofs of the fact into members of these gangs will not peach on each other, and the case is fare, indeed, where the member of one selves as a law within themselves and contwish the interference of others, and as so when anyone else does attempt to interfere they make common war against in so when anyone else does attempt to interfere they make common war against in so when anyone else does attempt to interfere they make common war against in so when anyone else does attempt to interfere they make common war against in the feeling and faith in the members of each gaing came this week, when a member of the famous Cherry hill gang was shot. A new way of giving a bridal coupie a "send off" was given a demonstration in the Tenderloin early this morning, and thought it possessed many unique pobuts and was not particularly natignty, the police put a quick stop to it on the ground that the Tenderloin is not what it used to be, and they could not afford to have the same sort of games going on in these days as used to pass current. The bridal couple had been giving their friends a wedding blowout at one of the hotels near Broadway, and it was the wee small hours of the morning when the newly married couple started for the Erie depot to commence their honeymoon journey. That none of the few pedestrians then on the street should fall to know it was a bridal coach, the friends decorated it profusely with table cloths and wash-basins.

There was nothing particularly new in and wash-basins.

There was nothing particularly new in the decorations, but where the jokers of the party fairly excelled themselves was in the happy thought that led two of them to mount the coach nurses, as in the days of post boys. Thus equipped the party went forth and as there was plenty of time in which to reach the denot they started in to make a pioper parado of the Tenderioin. That they did not succeed in fully covering the line of march, as at first planned, was due to the lack of sentiment on the part of the police. But though the "post boys" nad to dismount the table cloths and wash-basins were allowed to remain on the coach and thus decorated it rattled marrily over to the Erie ferry.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 25.—City
Treasurer C. M. Etheredge was summoned before the grand jury of Mecklenburg County Superior Court to-day with all the books and accounts appertaining to his office to testify. After being sworn and before any questions were asked, Soliotor Heriot Clarkson, formerly city attorney, oxcused Mr. Etheredge, remained awhile in conference with the grand jury and then announced that the matter was postponed.
It is stated to-night that the grand jury wants to investigate rumors of graft on the part of the Board of Aldermen, which are in circulation. Others say it is preliminary to presenting the city fathers for alleged violation of a State statute
which makes it a misdemenuor for a city
to traffic with its aldermen.
There are many who believe that something sensational will develop in the near future. The grand jurors are sworn to
